EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with David G. Unrau on August 3, 2005.

The application has been amended as follows:

The Claims:

In claim 1, line 3, after "crosslinking agent" insert – which is at least one alpha-hydroxypolycarboxylic acid, --.

In claim 1, line 3, delete "in the presence" and insert – and --.

In claim 1, line 7, delete "a" and insert – the --.

In claim 3, line 1, delete "2" and insert – 1 --.

Cancel claims 2 and 14.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Note that, Applicant's amendments, Applicant's arguments, and the Examiner's Amendment are sufficient to place the instant claims in condition for allowance.

Of the references of record, the most pertinent is Norlander (US 6,176,973). Norlander teaches an absorbent cellulose product which includes cellulose fibers which are cross-linked by reaction with an effective quantity of one or more water-soluble polymers which are produced in advance, which have an average molecular weight of between 350 and 70,000 g/mol and which possess free acid or aldehyde groups. When the product is being prepared, the cellulose fibers are impregnated with the polymers in aqueous solution. See Abstract.

However, Norlander does not teach a step of bleaching the resultant cured, crosslinked fibers as the last step of the process as recited by instant claim 1.

None of the references of record, alone or in combination, teach or suggest a method for forming bleached crosslinked cellulosic fibers comprising the specific steps in the specific order as recited by the instant claims. Accordingly, since the prior art fails to teach such a method as recited by the instant claims, the instant claims are deemed allowable.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
